Approved For Release 2003/12/04 : CIA-RDP80-00926A007600180007-4 CONFIDENTIAL

A TIBERTA TANDAMATUM

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY 25X1 INFORMATION REPORT COUNTRY USER (Estonia) Life in Soviet Slave Labor Camps/Attitude of SUBJECT 25X1 Prisoners in Anticipation of Release/People longing for War and American Liberation/Disappointment in the US. 25X1 DATE DISTR. 6 DEC 4954 NO, OF PAGES 🖔 UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18. SECTIONS 74 794. OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVE. NO: OF ENCLS. ITS CONTENTS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON I SUPP. TO 25X1 THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION REPORT NO. 25X1 "Life in general in the slave camps in the USSF has 1. improved considerably since 1952. Then the food norms were raised and apart from bread (650 grams) and soup twice a day, the prisoners even got porplige two times daily. This made it reasonably sure that one could survive and no longer feared starving to death. (Moreover, the prisoners could count on receiving the food they were entitled to get. The authorities did everything in their power to see to it that the prisoners got their food. If something happened which made it impossible to distribute the food properly -- a breakdown in the bakeries, e.g., - it was the general rule that the missing food was added to the next day's quota. Money & Food: "Since 1952, the prisoners have received pay for their labor. Expenses for their lodgings and food were deducted from the pay before it was paid out to the prisoners, but now and then it happened that they really could get some money, which could then be spent in the camp canteen. 25X1 3. 25X1 CONFIDENTIAL D106687 DISTRIBUTION - STATE NAVY ALR This report is for the use within the USA of the Intelligence components of the Departments or Agencies indicated above. It is not to be transmitted overseas without the concurrence of the originating office through the Assistant Director of the Office of Collection and Dissemination, CIA.

	- 2 - 25X1X
4.	Life in Labor Camps - Life on Kolkhozes: "Although the life of the slave workers is terrible, it is a mistake to suppose that theirs is the hardest life in the USSR. The kolkhozniks, although nominally free, are much worse off still. Thanks to the inefficiency of the system, all agricultural works are hopelessly delayed, the haymaking goes on until October, the harvest until snows, and potatoes are dug from frozen earth. Prisoners kept receiving letters from the kolkhozes at home telling how townspeople had been joinmandeered t
4	dig the potatoes in December on the kolkhoz fields. While in the labor camp a certain minimum quantity of food is guaranteed which makes it possible to exist, no such guarantee exists in the kolkhozas, and after the state has taken the compulsory delivery quotes, the kolkhozniks have to search themselves 5Y	to get enough enough food to survive. The earnings of the kolkhoz pessants are miserably low.
.5/	The inmates of the labor camps, who
	1 are perfectly well awars of the conditions in the countryside, look with a
2 5X	dertain anxiety towards their liberation. Most of the prisoners who were
	A STATE A STATE OF THE STATE OF got sentences of C-10 years and so can expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the
-34-	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after
9	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the
5.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number
5.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be
5.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his pentence. The release is not axecuted:
5.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his lentence. The release is not exputed: an automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can
5•	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his pertence. The release is not expouted: an automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question.
5.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his pertence. The release is not expouted: an automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question.
6.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his lentence. The release is not assoluted: an automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is longing and hoping for a war. Every spring it is rumored that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that
6.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his _entence. The release is not expouted: an automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is longing and hoping for a war. Every spring it is rumored that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that it will break out next spring. The management actories are told:
6.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his _entence. The release is not assoluted: an automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is longing and hoping for a war. Every spring it is rumored that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that the vill break out next spring. The formal autumn, and every autumn it is said that it will break out next spring. The formal autumn, and every autumn it is said that the prison in Tallir it was said that one winter day there had
6.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his _entence. The release is not assouted: an automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is longing and hoping for a war. Every spring it is rumored that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that it will break out next spring. The decided and every autumn it is said that it will break out next spring. The decided are to been a spiritual seame in a cell. The medium had been excellent and had said that certain prisoners would receive a parcel soon, and foretold exactly what
6.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his _entence. The release is not assouted: an automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is longing and hoping for a war. Every spring it is numbered that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that it will break out next spring. The first antestic stories are told:
6.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his lentence. The release is not axouted: quautomatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is longing and hoping for a war. Every spring it is rumored that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that it will break out next spring. The describes are told: In the Central Prison in Tallir it was said that one winter day there had been a spiritual seance in a cell. The medium had been excellent and had said that certain prisoners would receive a parcel soon, and foretold exactly what the parcel would contain. Of course, the medium was asked when they would be free again. He said he saw something, but he was not sure about the time. It was,
6.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his lentence. The release is not axouted: quautomatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is longing and hoping for a war. Every spring it is rumored that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that it will break out next spring. The description are told: the central Prison in Tallir it was said that one winter day there had been a spiritual seance in a cell. The medium had been excellent and had said that certain prisoners would receive a parcel soon, and foretold exactly what the parcel would contain. Of course, the medium was asked when they would be free again. He said he saw something, but he was not sure about the time. It was, cold, anyhow, and the trees were barren, but there was no longer any snow when all
6.	expect to be released in a year of two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his centence. The release is not executed automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is longing and hoping for a war. Every spring it is rumored that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that it will break out next spring. The first fantastic stories are told: In the Central Prison in Tallir it was said that one winter day there had been a spiritual scance in a cell. The medium had been excellent and had said that certain prisoners would receive a parcel soon, and foreteld exactly what the parcel would contain. Of course, the medium was asked when they would be free again. He said he saw something, but he was not sure about the time. It was, cold, anyhow, and the trees were barren, but there was no longer any snow when all the seven prison gates would be opened by a foreign army, the Soviets had left,
6.	expect to be released in a year .r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his _entence. The release is not amounted are automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is lenging and hoping for a war. Every spring it is numbered that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that it will break out next spring. The "allier autumn, and every autumn it is said that the prisoners would receive a parcel scon, and foreteld exactly what the parcel would contain. Of course, the medium was asked when they would be free again. He said he saw something, but he was not sure about the time. It was, cold, anyhow, and the trees were barren, but there was no longer any snow when all the seven prison gates would be opened by a foreign army, the Soviets had left, and all the prisoners were released. Scon afterwards,
6.	expect to be released in a year r two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his _entence. The release is not accounted not automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is longing and hoping for a war. Every spring it is numbered that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that it will break out next spring. The mathematical stories are told: In the Central Prison in Tallir it was said that one winter day there had been a spiritual seance in a cell. The medium had been excellent and had said that certain prisoners would receive a parcel soon, and foreteld exactly what the parcel would contain. Of course, the medium was asked when they would be free again. He said he saw something, but he was not sure about the time. It was, cold, anyhow, and the trees were barren, but there was no longer any snow when all the seven prison gates would be opened by a foreign army, the Soviets had left, and all the prisoners were released. Scon afterwards, NVD prison, etc., and it was to the Central Prison. The spring had come and gone - and everybody had thought that the medium had meant
6. 25X∕	expect to be released in a year of two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his tentence. The release is not axecuted as automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is longing and hoping for a war. Every spring it is rumored that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that in the Central Prison in Tallir it was said that one winter day there had been a spiritual seance in a cell. The medium had been excellent and had said that certain prisoners would receive a parcel soon, and foretold exactly what the parcel would contain. Of course, the medium was asked when they would be free again. He said he saw something, but he was not sure about the time. It was, cold, anyhow, and the trees were barren, but there was no longer any snow when all the seven prison gates would be opened by a foreign army, the Soviets had left, and all the prisoners were released. Soon afterwards, the MVD prison, etc., and it was spring had come and gone - and everybody had thought that the medium had meant the spring - and nothing had happened at all.
6. 25X∕	expect to be released in a year of two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his entence. The release is not accounted an automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is lenging and hoping for a war. Every spring it is runored that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that it will break out next spring. The "Limitantstic stories are told: In the Central Prison in Tallir it was said that one winter day there had been a spiritual seame in a cell. The medium had been excellent and had said that certain prisoners would receive a parcel soon, and foretold exactly what the parcel would contain. Of course, the medium was asked when they would be free again. He said he saw something, but he was not sure about the time. It was, cold, anyhow, and the trees were barren, but there was no longer any snow when all the seven prison gates would be opened by a foreign army, the Soviets had left, and all the prisoners were released. Soon afterwards, the medium had meant 2 to the Central Prison. The spring had come and gone - and everybody had thought that the medium had meant 2 only one little detail was changed.
6. 25X∕	expect to be released in a year of two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his tentence. The release is not axecuted as automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is longing and hoping for a war. Every spring it is rumored that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that in the Central Prison in Tallir it was said that one winter day there had been a spiritual seance in a cell. The medium had been excellent and had said that certain prisoners would receive a parcel soon, and foretold exactly what the parcel would contain. Of course, the medium was asked when they would be free again. He said he saw something, but he was not sure about the time. It was, cold, anyhow, and the trees were barren, but there was no longer any snow when all the seven prison gates would be opened by a foreign army, the Soviets had left, and all the prisoners were released. Soon afterwards, the MVD prison, etc., and it was spring had come and gone - and everybody had thought that the medium had meant the spring - and nothing had happened at all.
6. 25X∕	expect to be released in a year of two. As no political prisoners are allowed to return home after their release but must settle in the vicinity of the camps, the prisoners are afraid they will not be able to earn enough after their release to keep from starving. Sentences: Of course, although one has been sentenced to a certain number of years, one cannot be absolutely sure that he is actually going to be released after having served his entence. The release is not axecuted at automatically but a certain agency decides on this and if it chooses, it can refuse to release the prisoner in question. Hope for War: "Everybody is longing and hoping for a war. Every spring it is rumored that war will break out in the autumn, and every autumn it is said that it will break out next spring. The first antestic stories are told:

Approved For Release 2003/12/04 : CIA-RDP80-00926A	.007600180007-4
CONFIDENTIAL	23/1/4	25X1
- 3 -

Disappointment in the USA: "When Eisenhower became President, everybody was very much excited and hopeful. His first speeches and promises of liberty to all people, and the official declarations that policy of containment was now at an end and the policy of liberation would be inaugurated, spread like wildfire all over the country and were unconditionally believed. However, as high as the hopes had been, as great too was the disappointment when months and months passed and nothing happened. The people feel that they have been let down. They feel they have been promised help from the US, and they have received nothing; they feel they have been promised freedom, and they are still slaves.

US prestige has suffered considerable damage and US popularity has fallen. People cannot understand why the US, which in their opinion is the most powerful country in the world, tolerates the Sowiet tyranny without doing anything about it apart from making bombastic promises.

	- e₁	d
25X1A

CONFIDENTIAL 25X1